Projects

A lot of you commented on the Customer Survey that you would be willing to share your own projects with us.....So where are they!

Don't be shy, send in a picture of your Card, scrapbook page or whatever and we will put it on the Website.

The Survey has shown that you find the pages useful so go on.....you could be someone's inspiration!!

The more you send in the harder our webmaster has to work to update the pages showing off your ideas.

Weddings

As well as our Craft website we also have a Wedding site.

We can supply Wedding Stationery blank for you to print or we can take all the hard work out of it and do it for you!

As well as the actual wedding stationery we can also supply flowers, buckles and motifs, which can all be added to make your stationery extra special.

Valentines Competition

As our Find Rudolph competition was such a success we will be running a daily Valentines Competition from 1st to 14th February.

The Wedding site also offers you lots of information to help you prepare for your big day with items such as Responsibilities, details of photographers and Toastmasters.

If you do know any one planning their big day, then please do pass on our details.

Sample packs of Stationery are available via the website if you would like to see the range close up.

You can always just send an e-mail or give us a call and we will be happy to help.

Survey

Just a quick reminder regarding the 2009 Customer Survey.

If we have contacted you and asked you to fill in an online survey and you have not responded then one will be posted out to you in early February.

We really do appreciate every completed survey as it helps us to improve our service and product range.

A massive 'THANK YOU' to everyone who has responded so far.

£30 of Craft goodies are up for grabs, Please do take the time to fill it in if you can, who knows, you could win the prize!

All you have to do is find the missing hearts and fill in the form on the website telling us where you found them.

There will be a small prize per day for the first name out of the hat!

What are we up to?

Hi Fellow Crafters

Well we are busy collating all the Survey responses. I have to say that we have been overwhelmed by the lovely comments that many of you have written.

It is also great to hear what products you would like to see more of.....watch this space!

We will also be at the Stitches Show at the NEC, there is always so much to look at that you never know where to start.

We should have an update next month on some of the items that caught our eye.

Until next time, Happy Crafting
