What are we up to?

Hallo

Well our daughter has gone back to school now so there should be plenty of time for Crafting????

Now that the Craft Fairs are over we have to do a lovely stock take to make sure that everything is accounted for.

I am still looking at new ranges of products to stock. Selected customers may receive an e-mail requesting some feedback on a new product or products.

We would really welcome your views if you have 5 minutes to tell us what you think. If this proves successful then we may decide to send out samples for people to review. If you would be interested then please do let us know.

Auf Wiedersehen

Until next time, Happy Crafting

Sam & Rich xxx
